DEDICATION

The 1958 Fidelian salutes Mary in this her centenary year of the birth of the United States, whose name was borne by one of the founding ships of our country; to her, the patroness of America, we dedicate the names of so many of our cities, whose feastdays have so often been celebrated in our nation's history; to her, the patroness of America, we dedicate the past one hundred years Mary's unfailing love has poured forth from her patronage now be directed in a special way to her very own people. May she create out of the raw material of nature that she finds there a capable and worthy Catholic members of society.

We have dedicated this book to Our Lady in order to direct the grace, to emphasize her position as God's own choice for the Mother of the human race, to remind Americans that Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception is the special protectress of our beloved country. Through the kaleidoscope of the Fidelian's 144 pages may its readers see the spirit of Mary; may every page ring out a jubilant verse climaxing in a crescendo of love to form a litany in honor of our Lady of Lourdes.

Dear Graduates:

In choosing Our Lady of Lourdes as the theme of your annual, you have a very beautiful and powerful example on which to model your lives. You should always keep before you her unquestioning obedience in all things and at all times, also her cheerful acceptance of the trials of life.

Our age is tuned to the hum of the motor and the beep of the satellite. Science governs our lives; but not alone by science does man live. Its advocates, like babbling children home from school, and aflame with the first knowledge of the laws of nature may affect to despise the knowledge of their elders, but the world today has much to learn from the world in which Mary was a force superior to what the atom or the motor can ever become.

It is in the hope that Mary under her title, "Our Lady of Lourdes," can become a force for great things in your lives that I address you on this, the occasion of your graduation.

Specialized Catholic Action — full time — is an apt description of our faculty. Be they priest, sister, or lay teacher, each is a skilled and proficient administer of that acrimonious tonic for youth — education. As physicians and guides of both our souls and minds, their field of untiring labor spans an area as tremendous as the variety of interests and needs of the teenage world itself. Although their wise counsel, like all tonics, is sometimes capriciously rejected, yet, in years to come their wise counsel will stand us in good stead through the many secular and spiritual upheavals that plague an adult world.

All teachers impart something of themselves to every youth under their care, something special — their stroke in the molding of what they hope will some day become a fine Catholic American citizen.

And so to each faculty member who has ever taught us, or in any way helped us in our quest for knowledge and happiness, and this includes them all, we extend a most grateful and affectionate, "God bless you!"

SHORTHAND

FOURSCORE AND SEVEN enthusiastic stenographers with their teacher, Sister Mary Maximilia, struggle with Gregg's mysterious curlicues. This class holds the record as the largest Shorthand I class in the annals of PCH.

RESEARCH

KEEPING TRACK of the 4000 books in the PCHS library is the job undertaken by librarian, Sister Mary Laudine, and five student assistants. Helen Lopez, one of these five, helps to keep the ever-increasing card catalogue in order.

FULFILLING THE NEED for the religious education of five religion classes at PCH is the responsibility of Father James J. Murphy. Now in his ninth year on the faculty, Father Murphy's classes have grown in size with the school and presently are conducted in the auditorium. Engaged in discussion at the instructor's desk are: Judy Mullen, Keith Smith, and Ray Kruszona.

ENGLISH

GENERAL PRINCIPLES of grammar, including the intricacies of a topic outline, and a review of 1500 years of English literature, comprise the fourth year English course under the direction of Sister Mary Anilla. Demonstrating outline techniques are Elaine Campbell and David Sinnott.

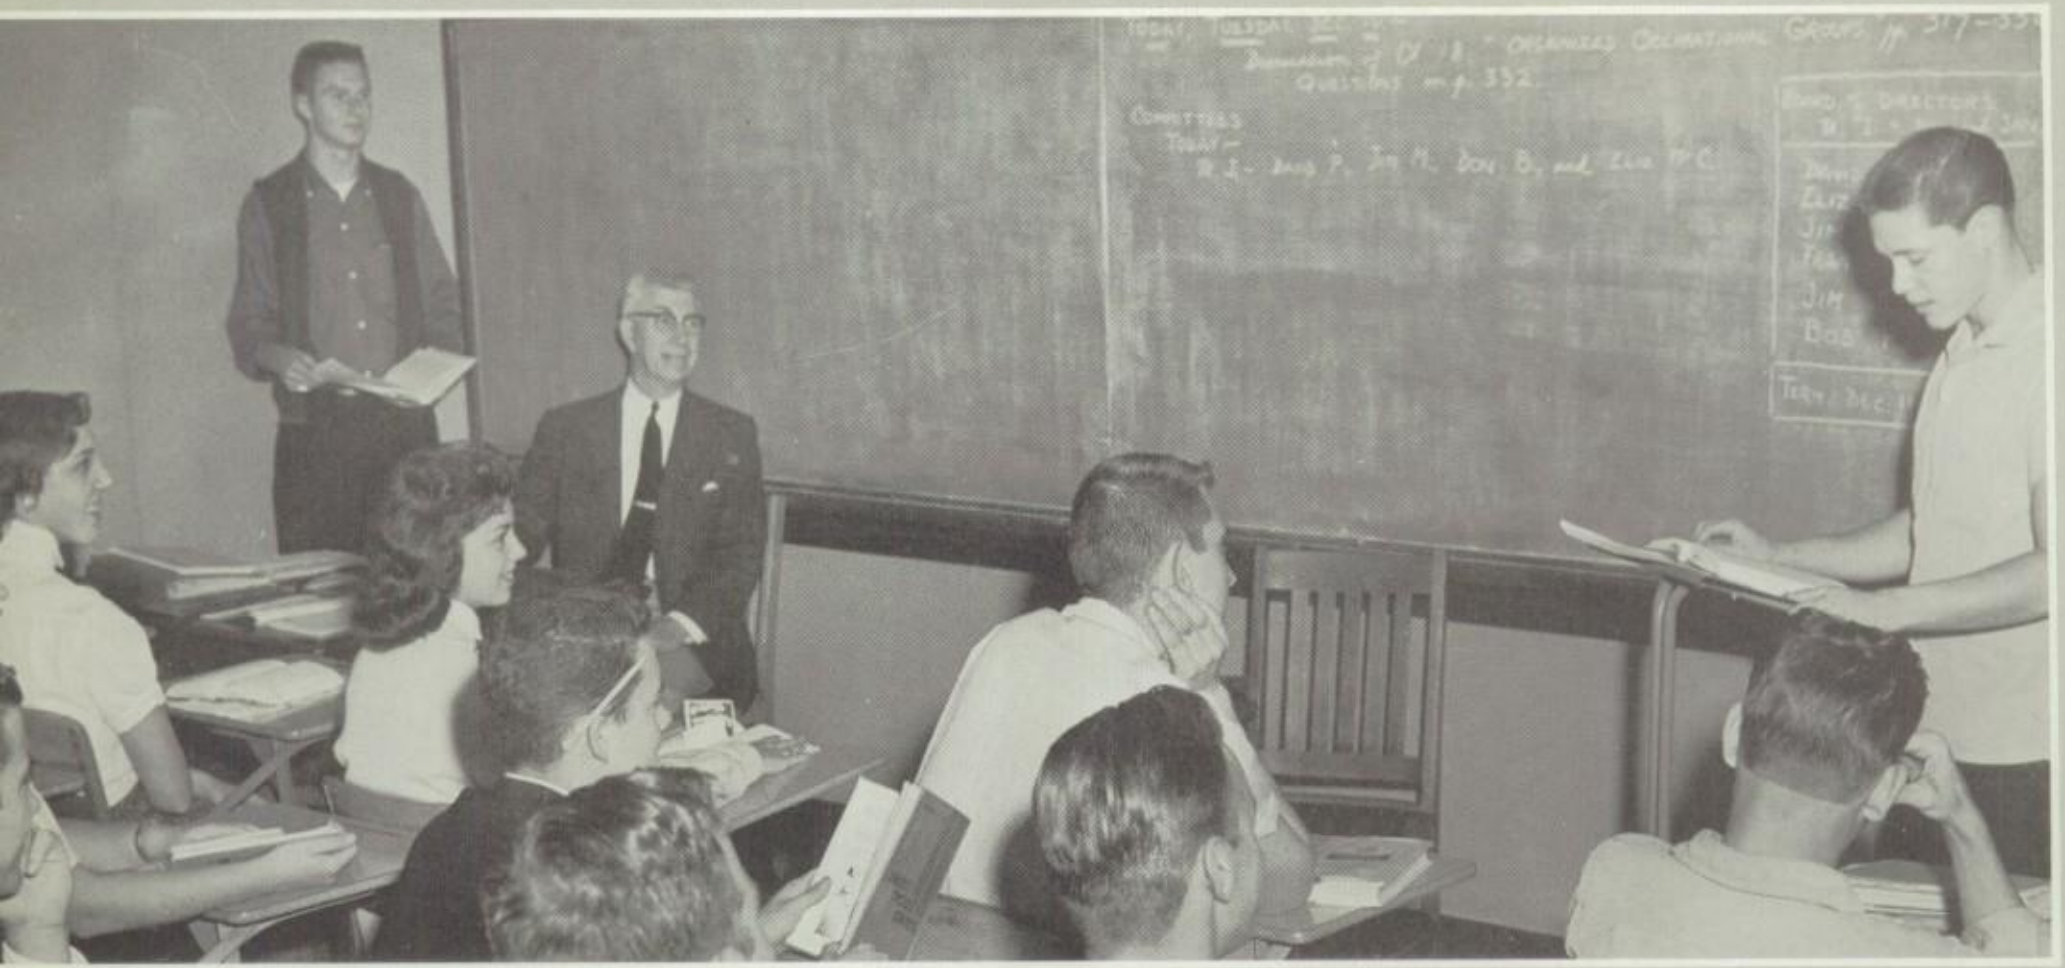

MATHEMATICS

"HOW TO PLOT a Linear Equation in Five Easy Lessons" by Jim Ganger. Sister Mary Amandette, math teacher, believes that student explanations are a challenge to their colleagues. This method gives 565 students in the constantly expanding math department a chance to show their understanding of this important subject.

CLASSES . . . CLASSES . . . CLASSES . . .

SOCIOLOGY

DAVID PORCHIA STRUGGLES through a complicated explanation of Fascism as Mr. Julian Brannan and smiling sociology students listen with amused interest.

JOURNALISM

CONFUSED OR AMUSED? Who stole the news? Haggard Fourth Estaters engaged in writing and rewriting copy for PCH's Lance and the Fidelian are: Terry Daniels, feature page editor; Barbara Rousch, copywriter; Sharon Thomas, news editor first semester; Marlen Koach, girls' sports writer; Jules Cochoit, news editor, second semester; Lyla Wilson, copywriter; Mary Moore, typist.

BIOLOGY

PROBING THROUGH a specimen of the Osteichthye phyla, biology students are finding and exposing the intricate systems of life under the direction of Sister Mary Thomasette. Lab periods alternating with regular classes enliven the course.

TRAFFIC JAMS

SEVEN HUNDRED and fifty-six spirited Spartans disperse into the lanes of the PCH freeway causing traffic jams that baffle even the most persistent of hall guards.

OOH! What's that??

CALMS AND SQUALLS IN THE SEA OF

SLY SOPHS on strike? Not really. These giggling scholars were politely evicted from Sister Mary Theophane's English II. The yearbook's photographer, who requested the eviction and caused the temporary ruckus, caught their casual mood, thinly disguised by their literature books.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT! Overcome by the aroma of delicious pastries, frosh, Richard Styvaert, eagerly reaches for a tasty morsel from the cafeteria-bound doughnut tray. Fellow freshmen, Bernard Wiese, Michael Limpane, and Darrell Olson enviously survey the futile attempt.

SCHOOL LIFE

"I'VE TOLD YOU over and over that your crescendos are too fortissimo and not enough pianissimo," remarks Mr. Max Henthorne, PCH band director to: (standing) G. Odgers, H. DeNoyer, A. Quirk; (seated) M. Femenia, H. Ozaroski, J. Mottola, and J. Silva. Newly organized, the band has performed at the Christmas show, Operetta and Spring Festival. Impromptu concerts have been given to the student body during a number of assemblies. Other members are: V. Piscopo, M. Miller, S. Miller, J. Noland, J. Brutocao, J. Bruno, M. Bruno, P. Stagno, J. Waddingham, P. Navarette, T. O'Brien, J. Pahl, St. Styvaert, R. Lakofks, A. Kinkle, J. Chapman, T. Wachter, R. Scanlon, R. Casas, P. Cormican, and M. Moran.

THE THREE MINUTE tardy bell rang a little too soon for Marie Bechtold and Rita Elias. The offenders, requesting tardy slips in the outer office, are questioned for the reasons regarding their delay by secretary, Mrs. Gladys Ouellette.

RESEARCH-MINDED STUDENTS use the informative and interesting material found on shelves of the PCH library.

PCH ROOTERS intently follow the antics of the rally leaders. Confident in their football team's ability to match opponents, the students prepare to cheer the team on to victory.

DRAFTING... ARCHITECTURAL DRAWING

KNOWING THE WORLD'S DEMAND for architects, draftsmen and engineers, drafting students learn the techniques of constructive drawing and dimensioning. Sisters Mary Filonilla directs two beginners' classes and one advanced class comprising, in all, more than 65 students.

THEORIES BECOME TANGIBLE facts to 100 physics students as class experimentation opens the door of knowledge. Here, under the vigilance of Sister Mary

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

SALUTE AMICI! Ancient Roman culture is revived by Latin classes under the guidance of Sister Mary Aloysianne. Margaret Comyns, pictured at rostrum represented PCH in the annual Language Festival held at the University of Los Angeles in March.

PHYSICS... CHEMISTRY

Ermenilda, Jim Gill demonstrates the principle of Boyle's Law to 18 fascinated fellow physicists.

HOMEMAKING

LA VERNE WATER SOFTENING plant hosted thirty members of the Chemphy Club in November. One of four scientific excursions, this field trip was undertaken to step up student interest in public utilities.

TWENTY-SEVEN STUDENTS of homemaking sample their own culinary triumphs at an annual Christmas buffet. Under the direction of Sister Mary Bertilia, the girls learn to prepare attractive menus, and study the value of well-balanced diets.

COUNSELLING

JOINT MEETINGS

ATTENTION IS FOCUSED on Junior class prexy, Dave Peters, as he presides at one of the nine joint meetings of the Junior Class home-rooms held in the auditorium. Assisting the chief executive are: Dave Recuperio, Vice-president; Sally Hoyt, secretary, and Dave Cissell, treasurer.

LUNCH

HAVEN OF THE HUNGRY, refuge of the weary, rendezvous for friends, this lunchtime interlude finds students converging under the pepper tree to finish homework assignments, discuss Boyle's Law, and football games while they down a snack during the staggered twenty-minute "lunch hour."

Character, scholarship, leadership and service are the prerequisites for a member of PC's two scholastic honor societies, the California Scholarship Federation, and the National Honor Society. Under the direction of Sister Mary Anilla and Sister Mary Amandette, the organizations have maintained positions of distinction on the campus. Membership in these organizations is the highest honor the school can offer in recognition of scholastic achievement.

Despite the high requirements for membership—a B or better average—the roster of both societies has listed more than 80 students for each of the two semesters. Officers of the National Honor Society are: M. Rainer, president; L. Porter, vice-president; L. Trueb, secretary; J. Cochoit, treasurer. Heading the California Scholarship Federation are: P. Palanos, president; J. Heieck, vice-president; T. Daniels, secretary; S. Wiese, treasurer.

ALLEGIANCE TO MARY! Students pledged their love and fealty to their heavenly Mother in the annual living rosary ceremony. To the accompaniment of more than 700 voices raised in prayer, Mary was crowned Queen. Sermon on Lourdes, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament by Father Murphy closed Mary's day at PCH.

CLIMAXING the annual Marian May Day ceremonies is the coronation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a testimony of our love and devotion. Performing this special honor is Prefect Emily Jessup, accompanied by 24 junior flower girls.

MARY'S DAY

The Queen's Sodality, dedicated to the fostering of an ardent devotion, reverence, and filial love of the Blessed Virgin Mary, devoted their energies to a wide and varied range of activities this year. Due to the tremendous influx of eager aspirants, the first activity of the Pomona Catholic Chapter of the Sodality of Our Lady was a complete reorganization of its structure. Under the leadership of moderator, Sister Mary Laudine, and Prefect, Roberta Borrego, the new members were put on a probation period prior to their installation. Among the successful, Sodality-sponsored activities were the daily recitation of the rosary, the Advent wreath ceremonies, the canned goods drive for the less fortunate in the parish, the Christmas program for the mentally retarded, and the "cherry tree" booth at the annual A.S.B. fiesta in March. Enthusiastic Sodalists wholeheartedly supported Mary's Hour and the Union Sodality Ball at Pasadena. Combining the spiritual with the social, Spartan Sodalists climaxed their year full of devoted activity with the May crowning and the lovely Sodality Ball.

RETREAT FINALE — "Holy God we praise Thy name."

SPIRITUAL EXERCISES and a three-day respite from school work rolled back the thunderheads of student problems on January 29, 30 and 31 during the annual retreat. The three-day event, directed by two Passionist missionaries, featured separate conferences for boys and girls. The stations, rosary, private conferences and spiritual reading engaged students' interest in the intermissions. An attendance of the entire student body at Mass and Benediction brought the retreat to a solemn close.

RETREAT... FIRST FRIDAYS

MISSION WORKSHOP members knot cord rosaries under the direction of Sister Mary Filonilla, for home and foreign missions. The group, organized this year, has produced more than 4,000 hand made rosaries which were sent to missions as distant as Madagascar, Philippine Islands and France. The Mission Workshop, having no officers, depends upon the leadership of "most productive" members, including those pictured above: Jenine Ebbert, Dorothy Whitman, Pat Donnelly, Nancy Tellis, Pat Davalos, Carol Hack, Judy Gross, Pat Paquette, Diane Gorden, Anita Colombero, Kathy Kolbert and Linda Basler.

PRELUDE TO PRAYER! As PCH students assemble by St. Joseph shrine before First Friday Mass, senior girls snatch a minute for a friendly chat with Father Power.

CONFRATERNITY OF CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE

The Confraternity's cause is bolstered by Leonore Porras, who supervises play periods during summer sessions scheduled by the CCD for public school children.

Supplementing the instruction of the regular teachers, Irene Murphy is seen explaining a catechism lesson to her ardent listeners.

Cherubs par excellence learn to genuflect under Lupe Trujillo's supervision.

IN THE LINE OF DUTY these CCD helpers, Lupe Trujillo, Eleanor Porras, Margaret Gomez, Dorothy Whitman and Irene Murphy assist Sister Socorro with illustrative material used in released times classes.

The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine first came to Pomona Catholic in 1956, when Sister Socorro, O.L.V.M., inaugurated the catechetical training course for students interested in teaching catechism to public school children. This year more than 50 juniors and seniors have completed the course and are contributing to the CCD program as teachers and helpers. Approximately 250 children in four neighboring cities are supervised in their catechetical classes by students of PCH.

WEAVING PATTERNS for sound Christian living on her charges' souls, CCD member, Margaret Gomez, finds the class eager to help.

LANCE AND

BUSINESS STAFF — Raising the money and keeping accurate accounts of where it came from and where it went was the knotty task of the Fidelian business staff. Their efforts under the direction and efficient management of Sister Mary Amandette made possible the financing of the 1958 Fidelian. Margaret Comyns, Joan Cabrin, Kathy Cholewa, Dorothy Mathern and Frances Comyns, business manager, were also assisted by Rosalie Fuller and Sherie Wiese.

Only the Yearbook staff knows the harrowing days that have passed in Room 201 — digging up facts before they existed, the backyard philosophy, the amateur psychology, the frightening realization that deadline is next Tuesday! Anyone who has truly worked with a deadline peeping over his right ear can never forget it. Still, it was really worth it, and when the dust and smoke of the last minute rush cleared, ten diehard members of the staff were really sorry that the fun and companionship in ye ole 201 were at an end. Our heartfelt thanks go to several people who have seen the Fidelian off to its 144th page: Bill Sheehan, Sandee Burgan, Susan Morriss, Terry Daniels, Mike Barnes, George Huchting, Margie Elias, all the members of the journalism class, our indispensable typist, Louise Mazzarini. Finally, thanks to our peerless sponsor, Sister Mary Theophane, for her relentless demand for perfection and for the hours of effort on her part which enabled us to meet our deadlines.

And so here it is, the 1958 Fidelian. We hope you like it. We do. Now you can take the stretchers, boys. Second floor, recovery room.

AT THE HELM this year was a top-notch team — Co-editors Rona Wilson and Linda Kasper. By sheer genius and hard work, they produced a yearbook which will be hard to match in many years to come.

GIRLS' LEAGUE — Vocational guidance as well as aid in personal problems were the aims of the monthly assemblies presented by the Girls' League. Newly instituted this year, the league has already acquired prominence on the campus; with the guidance of Sister Mary Potentia and close association with the Girls' Athletic Association, it sponsored a number of top-notch activities, among them a Father-Daughter Banquet at the South Hills Country Club and a career program. Joe Siler and Mr. William MacDonald are pictured perched on a 3-inch gun aboard the USS Columbus, a heavy cruiser, during the project, "A Day in the Navy," sponsored by U.S. Naval Reserve for high school journalists. This is the first year that Pomona Catholic has participated in "Operation Schoolboy," initiated by the Navy last year to acquaint young men of high school age with the advantages and responsibilities of this important armed service. Two representatives from each school were invited to attend. Siler and Associate Editor John Heieck were accompanied by English instructor, Mr. MacDonald.

BACKWARDS DANCE

MOST POPULAR dance of the year was the Backwards dance sponsored by the Girls' Athletic Association late in February. Anticipated eagerly by both boys and girls, the dressy affair came to a climax with the crowning of Crosby Nagengast as King of Hearts. Judy Norton and Socorro Gomez smilingly approve the choice.

HOMECOMING...

PRINCESS Julie Blanchard accepts nosegay tribute from David Schulte during half time activities.

Homecoming week descended upon Pomona Catholic with the customary fanfare and gaiety. After kicking off the gala week with a huge bonfire rally, the school moved en masse to downtown Pomona in a car cavalcade for a mammoth pre-game parade. Twirling batons, swirling flags, a 32-19 Spartan victory over St. John Vianney and student spirit soaring to an all time high made the 1957 homecoming event one of the most memorable in the school's history.

VICTORY...FANFARE...GALA BALL

ROSES AND ROYALTY reigned over Spartan homecoming events on November 1. American Beauty roses and a glittering crown presented by last year's queen, Marlene McDonald, became tokens of an evening to remember for Homecoming queen, Sue Sindenfaden. The queen and her four princesses Honora Warner, Joan Lamaison, Julie Blanchard and Betty Ochoa were chosen by members of the Lettermen's Club.

BOUNCY MUSIC presented a chance to show off for some couples at the Homecoming Dance featuring the theme, "Victory to the Stars."

SPIRIT BEHIND THE SPARTAN SPIRIT, was Father Murphy who joined the victorious team in the homecoming festivities at the Ebell Club.

THE ANNUAL ASB FIESTA was spurred on to a bright success, despite Mr. Weather's antics, by the whole-hearted cooperation of students, parents, faculty and alumni.

ASB FIESTA

HIGHLIGHTING the fiesta was an old-fashioned minstrel show featuring members of the Drama Club as lead performers.

WORKING IN FRIENDLY COMPETITION towards the same goal, students set up 13 booths, each sponsored by a school club. The students' five-hour event scheduled for 1:00 to 6:00 p.m. on March 31 netted a total of more than 1,000 dollars.

"HOW DO I LOOK?" Fred Story, Jim Mottola, Bill Sheehan, Liz McCready and Sandra Grimm examine used clothing collected for the annual Y.C.S. clothing drive for the missions.

"THERE'LL BE A HOT TIME IN THE OLD BUS TONIGHT," yell songleaders and a cheering crowd of roving PCHers as Spartans make the final touchdown at the Yuma game.

"GET SPONSORS, GET SPONSORS, YEA BO," shout cheerleaders at the assembly to get the Fidelity sponsorship drive under way.

IVY-CHAIN PROCESSIONAL

MSGR. PATRICK J. DIGNAN, officiating at the graduation rites, smilingly presents diplomas to the class of 1957. Assisting him are Rev. Patrick J. Power and James J. Murphy, assistants at St. Joseph parish.

BACCALAUREATE MASS

RECESSIONAL

Four years of outstanding performance as scholars, brought 104 members of the Class of 1957, to the baldachin altar of St. Joseph Church on June 10 for the seventh annual graduation exercises. White-robed members of the scholastic honor societies, carrying the traditional ivy chain, led the seniors in solemn processional into the church. The commencement speaker, Rev. Carl E. Von der Ahe, chaplain of Loyola University, addressed the graduates on the subject of "Catholic Leadership through Scholarship." Following the commencement sermon, Rev. Thomas P. English, pastor, presented the Class of 1957 to Msgr. Patrick J. Dignan, superintendent of archdiocesan schools, for the reception of diplomas and awards. Music for the event was provided by the Pomona Catholic Glee Club under the direction of Sister Mary Celine. Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament closed the commencement services. Following the graduation rites, the new alumni were feted at a reception sponsored by the Pomona Catholic Parents Association in the school auditorium.

EULOGY

Fifty-three years ago, when the vast Rancho de Palomares constituted what is now Pomona, when the entire valley lay in the oak-strewn hills with mountains looming high in the north, the men of San Jose, led by their pastor, Rev. Joseph Nunan, erected a new and wonderful church. The needs were small, and the people were few, but this House of God raised with such undaunted faith has become unmistakably inscribed in the great drama of their lives. Under the shadows of its spires pointing upward to the stars, Pomonans were born . . . and lived . . . and died. From that church the toll of bells announced the joy of married couples, the departure of the dead . . . the glory of Easter . . . and the joy of Christmas. Within that church Pomonans shared with their eight succeeding pastors the holiest, the happiest and the most sacred moments of their lives. In that church dwelt the Deity in all His infinite majesty and omnipotence. But . . . the day of Don Palomares and his people had long passed . . . and a new, ever-increasing fold of faithful is seeking their way to God. And so, after fifty-two years, the tiny San Jose, built in 1905, steps aside and bends its proud steeples of days long past in humble obeisance to a larger and more glorious successor. And now the wrecking crews . . . Stay your hand . . . or soften your blows in humility and reverence . . . for hundreds who have passed this way . . . have found their way to God, and have left the traces of their soul's destiny within these holy walls.

you really

FABULOUS! This is one of the few adjectives that can describe the 1957 Spartan grid season. Only one defeat and two ties mar the record. Spirit played an important part in the Spartan saga as they went into the games out-weighted but never out-fought.

The '57 Spartans roared into the season with a 21-0 victory over the Barstow Union High Riffians. Traveling to Yuma, a record number of about 800 Spartan fans saw their grid favorites wallop the Criminals for the first time, 18-0. Returning home Spartan gridders played a rude host to the Corona Panthers, powers of the Tri-County League, by smashing them 33-0.

"Flu Manchu" was the only thing that stopped the mighty Spartans when a scheduled game with the Covina Colts was canceled because of the sickness.

Unscored upon in pre-league play, the Spartan machine pounced upon the St. Francis Knights, dumping them 27-6. Homecoming at San Gabriel Mission nearly ended the Spartan record as the spirited Pioneers came within one point of downing the Spartans. Only the invincible Spartan spirit saved the day with one extra point the margin, 13-12. St. John Vianney became the next Spartan scapegoat as the Daymen rolled over the Nobles 32-19.

Stars got into Spartan eyes when they met Mary Star of the Sea and eked out a 14-14 tie. PCH had to come from behind in the fourth quarter to tie the game.

Powerful Mater Dei invaded the Spartan camp with hopes of upsetting Spartan title chances but considered themselves lucky to come out with the 0-0 deadlock. Smart defense work by both teams proved to be the factor as the spirited Spartans refused to give the Monarchs the necessary yards for either touchdowns or field goals and had one unsuccessful field goal attempt themselves. This tie cost the Spartans the title but the capacity crowd of 5000 fans will remember this contest as the greatest effort of the season.

SPARTAN HALFBACK, Crosby Nagengast rips off huge gain against St. Monica in the opening round CIF playoff tilt. Coming up to assist on the play are Jim Williams (30), and Ken Clark (10).

EVERYONE'S ON THEIR feet (on our side, that is)! Loyal rooters cheer wildly as the Spartans score again at Yuma.

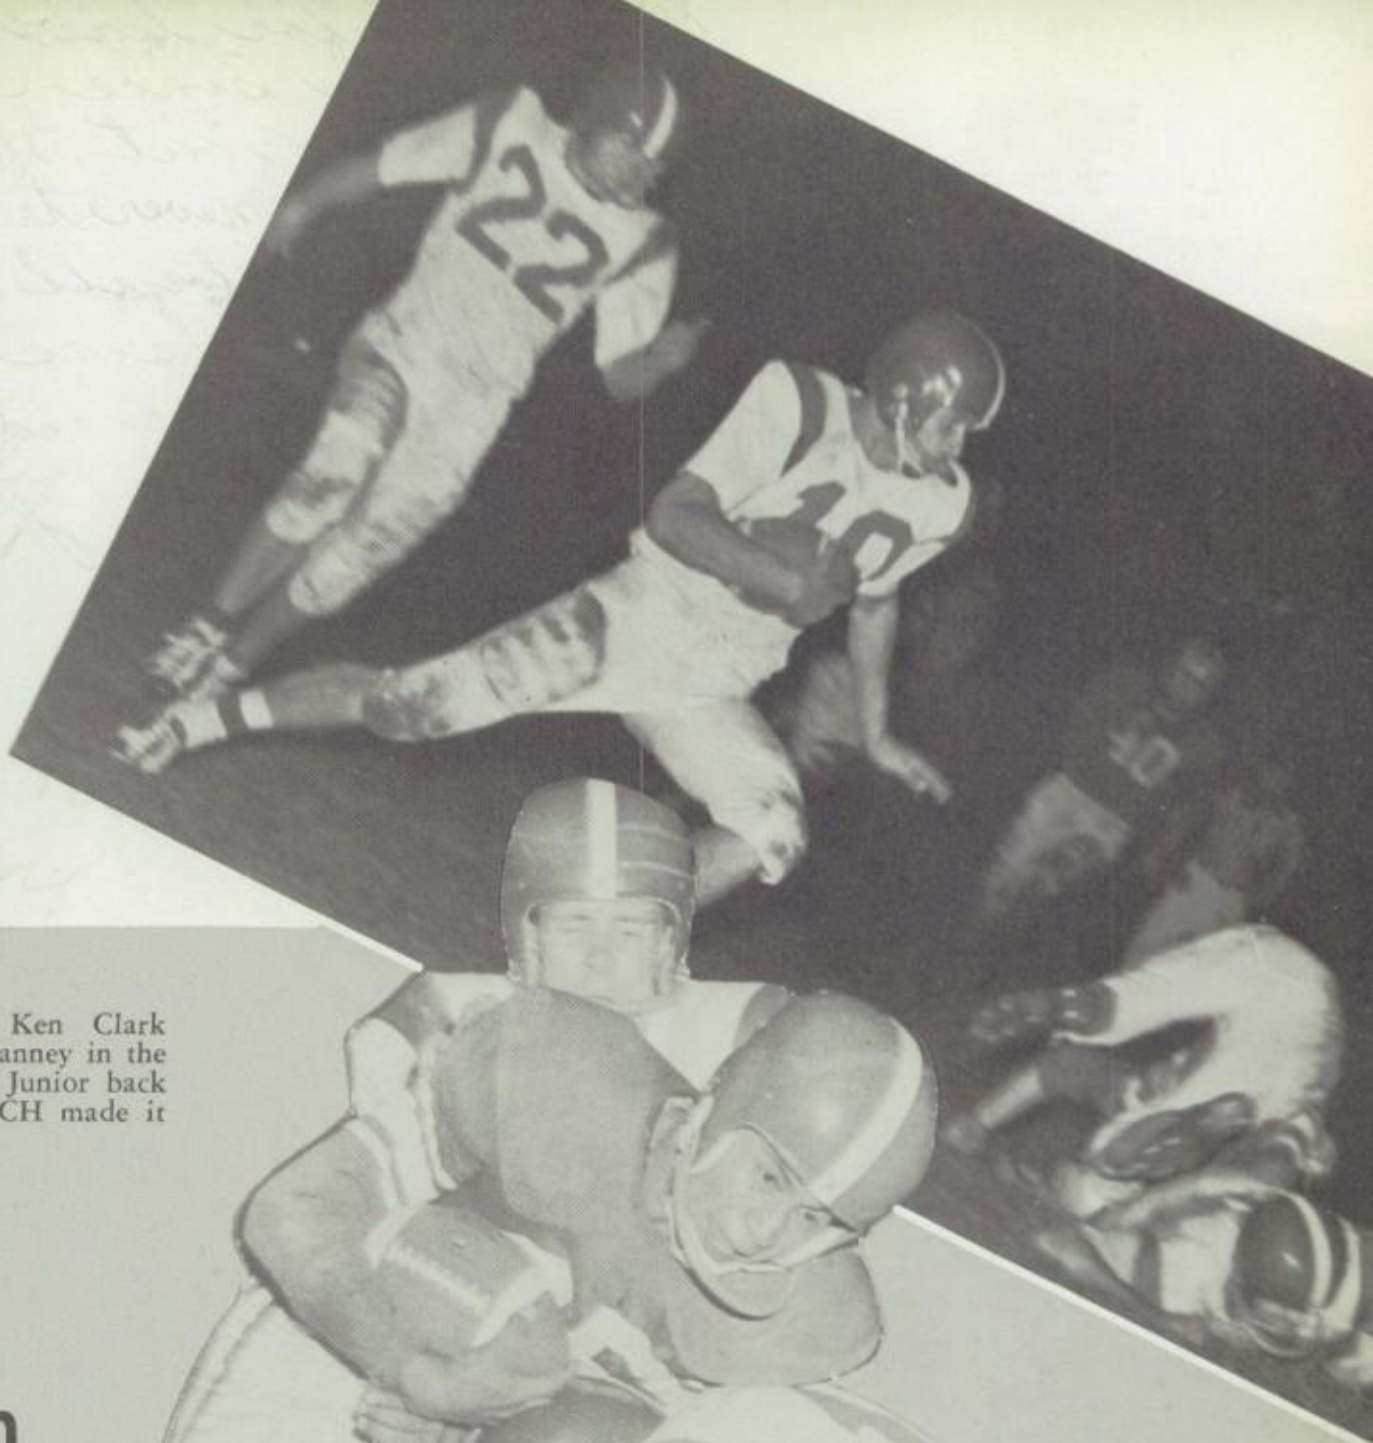

End Joe Margala (80) gets dumped by a Barstow Riffian after snatching a pass from Ken Clark. The Spartans went on to triumph, 21-0.

WADDINGHAM'S PERFECT BLOCK!

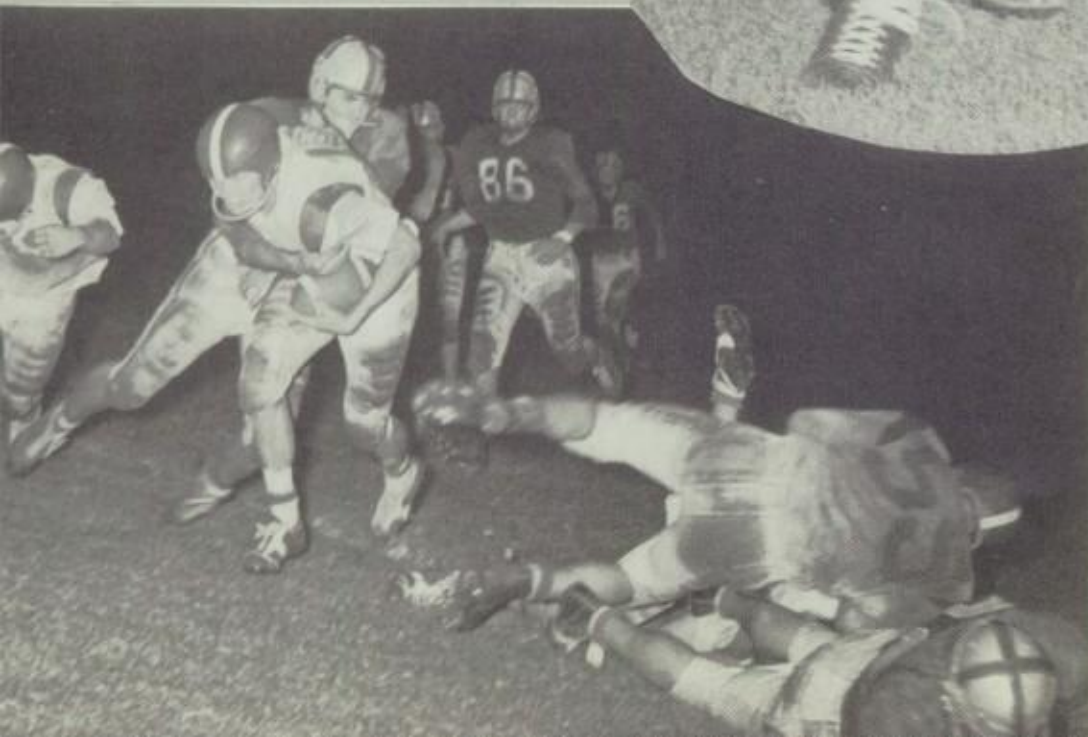

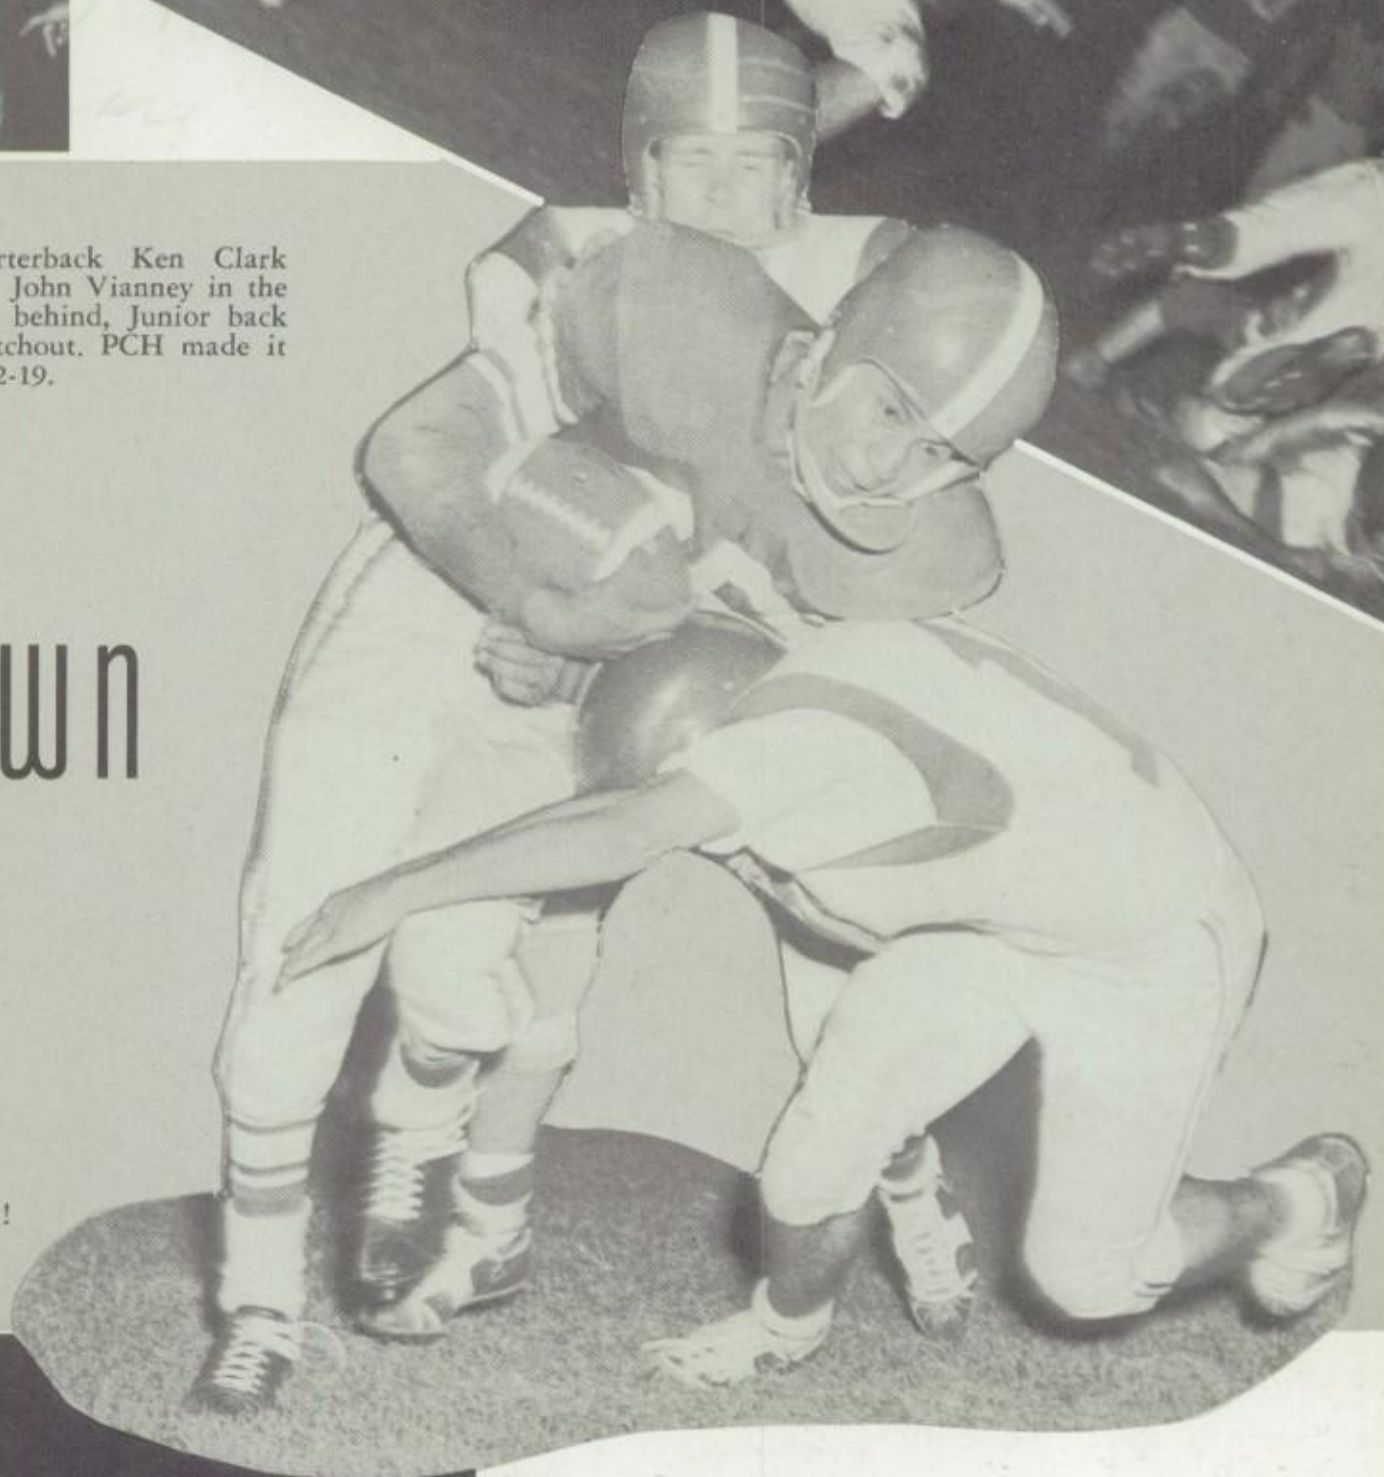

Reaching for that extra yard, Spartan halfback Crosby Nagengast (42) is tripped up by determined Mission tacklers. Coming in to assist him are Terry Hodel (58) and Dave Frakes (75). The Spartans went on to edge the Pioneers, 13-12.

ALL-PAROCHIAL LEAGUE quarterback Ken Clark (10) grinds out yardage against St. John Vianney in the Homecoming contest. Coming from behind, Junior back Tom Sidenfaden awaits possible pitchout. PCH made it six in a row, trouncing the Nobles, 32-19.

THE BIG SQUEEZE!

CENTER WALLY JOOS (55) dumps a Vianney defender, but this is little help to Ken Clark, about to be downed by another Noble defender.

You never treated me very nice. Just hidin'. I want to thank you for all the dates we've had and for putting up with my moods as long as you did. MATER DEI

Gaining a bid for the Northern Group, Small Schools, CIF Playoffs the Spartans opened their title quest with a 19-6 victory over St. Monica High of the Olympic League. Arroyo Grande of the San Luis Obispo League succumbed before the Spartan barrage 40-6 in the finest running game of the season.

With hopes high, the Spartans entered the CIF finals for the second time and were defeated for the second time 26-13 as mud and a determined San Marino team from the Rio Hondo League spelled doom for the final game of the season.

The official close of the grid season came on December 11 when over 400 football fans packed the Pomona Country Club for the annual Sports Banquet to honor the Varsity and Bee gridders.

Even though it was an "almost" season, the '57 Spartans will go down in memory as one of the greatest teams to grace the Spartan Campus.

IT'S TIME for a breather and team managers Steve Rogers, Bob Bowman, Mike White and Dick Van Thiel pause long enough for the Fidelian photog to snap a leisurely pose. By keeping the gridiron warriors equipped and patched up this hard-working quartet helped the squad post a winning season.

BEE FOOTBALL

Piloted by Coaches Cal Stewart and Frank Caudillo, the Spartan JV's fought their way to a 6-2 season record and a share of the Parochial League crown.

The Spartans started things off right by thumping the Barstow Ruffians 7-6 in a hard fought thriller, and steamrolling the Notre Dame Bulldogs 29-0, but fell to Corona and St. Francis, 7-6 and 18-0, in successive games, to even the slate.

Andy Messore led the Junior Spartans to a 25-7 victory over Mission with jaunts of 71 and 51 yards. The locals dumped St. John Vianney 3-0 and followed it up with a 20-0 victory over Mary Star. The climax of the season was reached as the JV's dropped defending league champ Mater Dei 19-13.

The JV gridders honored with the varsity at the annual awards banquet were: John Stupey, Most Valuable Player; Andy Messore, the Most Sportsmanlike; Jerry Zapata, Best Competitor; and Freshman Bob Moynihan, the Most Improved.

SPARTAN MENTORS

Spartan Varsity Football Coach Farley Day, flanked by End Coach Rod Long and Back Coach Herb Adams, guided the Pomona Catholic Spartans to new heights this year on the gridiron. These men, together with Bee Coaches Frank Caudillo and Cal Stewart, represent one of the finest prep coaching staffs in Southern California.

Coaches Day and Adams are Southern imports in their second year at Pomona Catholic. Coach Long came to the Spartan camp from Bellflower High. Besides coaching football, Coach Adams pilots the varsity horsehiders and Coach Long guides the Spartan thinclads.

"I lead four lives" could well be the theme of PCH's busy Director of Athletics, Father James Murphy. Besides performing his regular parish duties, Father Murphy is a full time Religion teacher and guardian of the Spartan sports world. This year he has accepted another responsibility — presidency of the Parochial League.

Bee Coaches Frank Caudillo and Cal Stewart guided the Junior Spartans to a share of the Parochial League crown, losing only to St. Francis and Corona High of the Tri-County League in the grid campaign.

In the foreground Lance photog Vince Piscopo gets some action shots for the last page of the school paper.

Eyes glued on the action, Bill Sheehan, Sports Reporter for the local papers and Editor of the Lance and Fidelian Sports Sections, jots down important items that will help him bring the play by play account into Pomona homes.

TWO POINTS FOR THE FACULTY! Bill Murphy (13) prepares to dunk 2 of his 8 points in the Faculty's losing effort against the Spartan Varsity. Attempting to block the shot is Varsity defender Ron Ciora (4) as Bob Ury (3) comes in to assist. The Varsity trounced the Faculty 64-43.

HOW CAGERS FARED

Despite a disappointing 7-24 season record, the Pomona Catholic Spartans did uncover a few bright spots while playing under a blanket of hard luck.

Junior Ron Ciora broke loose during league play to nail down a guard spot on the second All-League team. Ron led the team in total points with 65 for a 6.5 league average. Senior Cisco Carlos paced the varsity with 307 total points for the season and 63 during league competition, although he missed one loop game via an illness.

Coach Cal Stewart's five established a new single game scoring record while rolling by St. Francis of Riverside 80-51. It seemed that the squad couldn't miss against the visiting Bulldogs as Carlos, Dave Keser and Guy Belcore all hit in double figures.

Keser came into his own toward the close of the season, leading the squad in scoring the final three league games.

Senior playmaker Dave Sullivan discovered it was more fun scoring as he led the Spartans past the usually tough Faculty, 64-43, with a 15-point outburst. It was the second consecutive win over the Faculty, and you might recall that Sullivan was instrumental in the 1957 varsity win, also.

Other bright spots include Belcore's game-winning lay-ups with 14 seconds remaining as the Spartans nipped Mary Star, 20-19, during the League Carnival, and Mike Aparicio's 17-point output as the Spartans whipped Calxico, 47-43.

UP AND OVER goes Freshman Dave Clark as he reaches upward toward the school record.

BASEBALL

In '57 baseball play the Spartans secured for themselves a three-way tie for second place in the league with Mary Star and St. Francis, losing only four games, two to the champion Monarchs, 6-2 and 5-1, and once each to Mary Star, 8-3, and St. Francis, 7-2.

Leading batter for the locals last year was Jean Waddingham with a .312 season average and a .417 league average. Chucking for the Varsity in 1957 were Dave Keser, Ray Guillen, Cisco Carlos and Terry Stallard. Stallard has the distinction of pitching one of the three no-hitters in the '57 20-30 Tournament.

Pre-league contests in '58 found the Spartans dropping seven and winning five. Pomona Catholic posted decisive wins over Colton, Azusa, West Covina, and Pomona College Frosh.

As we go to press, the Varsity has defeated two Parochial League teams in as many outings. The Spartans triumphed over St. John Vianney, 7-1, and edged the Monarchs, 3-2. This was the first time Pomona Catholic defeated Mater Dei in the '57-'58 athletic year. The Fallbrook Warriors dumped the Spartans in the only game of the drowned out 20-30 Tournament.

TRACK

The 1958 edition of PHC's spikesters, probably the strongest team fielded by the Spartans in recent years, compiled a good record, while facing the toughest schedule in the school's history.

At the top of the achievement list is the Santa Ana Relays title. Paced by Seniors Bob Bartel and John Kelly, the Spartan thinclads won the final two events to capture the small schools crown by one point over a strong Tustin squad. As this was written, Coach Rod Long's crew had already taken the measure of Fontana, Pius X, West Covina, Mary Star, Webb, Upland and Mission, and was aiming for the league crown taken last year by Mater Dei. The chief threat for this season's title was the powerful St. Francis Knights.

VARSITY CINDERMEN PAUSE in their busy practice schedule to oblige the Fidelian photographer. J. Gabaldon, T. Stagno, A. Messoro, S. Rogers, L. Kalmer, T. Hodel, J. Mottola, B. Bartel, B. Buchanan, B. Ury, R. Ciora, J. Kelly, B. Riel, P. Hurst, J. Stupey, J. Williams, A. Naujokaitis, A. Vincent, D. Van Thiel, B. Bowman, J. Donovan, J. Keyes, G. Fink, J. Silvas, D. Clark, J. Vera and K. Clark.

SPARTAN DASHMAN BOB BARTEL puts on a burst of speed to tally four points in the 100 with teammate Ken Clark coming in to take third.

MILER JOHN KELLY WINS AGAIN! Coming in for a record-breaking 4:39.1, the Spartan distance man takes first place against the Upland Highlanders.

"YEA BO," shout the vigorous PCH cheerleaders, Betty Ochoa, Sue Sidenfaden, Cathy Beck, Bob Ury and Johnny Bockes, as they brush up one of the cheers that led our teams to victory. Another cheerleader, Harry Otting, did a great job as rally chairman this year.

"ALMA MATER," sing the songleaders to climax another PCH victory on the gridiron.

PRETTY — PEPPY — PEPSTERS unlocked the spirit of the PCH rooting section at the seasonal football games last fall. Songleaders Socorro Gomez, Honora Warner, Joan Lamison and Julie Blanchard did a lot to keep PCH teams on top.

MASTERING TECHNIQUES, girls in physical education classes, directed by Mrs. Margaret Marti, participate in a varied intramural sports program.

"CRACK!" High over second base sails the ball, giving Arlene Greuter another homer for her record.

"GO, SPARTANS, BEAT THE MON-ARCHS!" From the throats of 750 Spartans come cheers and songs to support their favorite gridgers. Every week during the football season, rallies brought up Spartan spirits for the coming athletic contest.

BASKETBALL PLAYS an integral part in the intramural program for the girls. Avid cagers pictured below are: M. Pizzuto, I. Gomez, K. Garman, L. Basler, B. Collins, J. De Lorenzo and J. Koach.

"JUST A LITTLE BIT HARDER," says Coach Day (Terry Daniels) in a take-off of the coaching staff during the homecoming rally put on by Booster Club. Hard work by this club helped to bolster school spirit during the games.

PREPARED TO TAKE ON all comers in a fast game of basketball are: M. Partida, B. Grigware, J. Jackson, F. Byers, K. Adams, A. O'Connor, C. Hack, T. Garcia, A. Kolbe, J. Arcide, J. Hoyt and W. McCready.

Hi Judy,

Sue Judy, I sure, really, honestly, sincerely think that you are a little doll! I also am glad that you were our queen this year for the Backwards Dance. I also think that your king was, & still is a doll &
I don't mean a cragua-doll. Be good to him Judy because I really think he loves you & I don't think he'd ever in a million years do you wrong. You should have gone out for cheerleading this year, you would have had it in the bag. Please don't feel bad about your grades you know the old saying that beauty and brains don't go together! I'd rather have the beauty anyday! Besides did you ever hear a man whistle at brains. I haven't! But don't get me wrong! You're really far from being dumb.
I'm going to be working this summer but I guess you will be too ~~se~~ but I'll try to go to the beach or show or something like that on the weekends so I want you to go too Okee Dokee!
Shell, Judy I guess I'm just about running out of space but before I go I want to wish you the best of luck with everything & anything & be good to him.

To Judi,
One of the sweetest and most attractive girls in the Junior Class, and you know what I'm talking about. Seriously, I really loved her to get you to go out but you just had to in your head you went. Well, as much for my feeling at you. Even tho I'm moved about that I must ~~say~~ (copy) tell you that I have really enjoyed these past three years as one of your classmates and I hope next year will be the best of all. It was loads of fun socializing at the prom and I'm sorry I was more trouble than I was help. Thanks ever so much for all your aid for the class and for the advice you gave me during the year. Crocker is really a lucky guy and I know of many who would like to be in his shoes. Be a good girl this summer & I hope that you won't forget me. Hope to see you during

Judie,

Buddy here I go, but I'll see you next year when we take cherical together. We sure had a blast in these few years but they'll be ones I'll never tell my grand-children, child ren. (I'm going to get married) If I had met you along time ago you mite have even been worst. But seeing how you only turned out to be a slob, some one must have let you see the light. I sure hope you take in all that Sue taught you in typing about spacing and erasing.
And especially had to do your home work when Latoria walks
the isles. If your good and pray
I might come around to see you some times. Lucky you.
